Seminary Leader Speaking in Chapel

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- Dr. Jason Duesing, provost and associate professor of historical theology at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Missouri, will speak in chapel at Cedarville University on February 20 and 21. Chapel begins at 10 a.m. and is open to the public.

Before serving at Midwestern Seminary, Duesing was on the administrative leadership team at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

Duesing is a research fellow for the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and a member of the Evangelical Theological Society. He is also on the board of directors for The Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood, where he is the editor for The Journal for Biblical Manhood and Womanhood.

Duesing also edits for the Midwestern Journal of Theology, a biannual academic journal focused on assisting the church in disciple-making, and for For the Church, a collection of gospel-centered resources from Midwestern Seminary.

Duesing earned a Ph.D. in historical theology and Baptist studies from Southwestern Seminary and a M.Div. from Southeastern Baptist Theology Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.
